Message from the Head:

Message from the Head:

We have had a lovely week at school with everyone enjoying dressing up for World Book Day and celebrating our love of reading. Don't forget we have an amazing Book Fair visiting the school on March 24th – each child will have a session with the booksellers where they will share some specially selected titles then there is a chance to visit and buy some books after school.

World Book Day:

We had some fantastic entries for our shoebox competition...so much so that we had to buy some extra prizes to celebrate the wonderful creativity. Thank you to the families who took part in this.

Through kindness, teamwork and determination we thrive.

A small selection of the fantastic costumes we saw in Key Stage One and Key Stage Two on Wednesday:

Kind,
Calm,
Safe:

We have continued to keep our new behaviour rules high-profile our and there is a positive shift in the school. Lots of children already embody these values and we will be doing some special shout-outs in Monday assemblies to show that we notice and appreciate these efforts.

Play times:

Our play times continue to feel much more fun and purposeful and some new resources arrived this week. We discussed the importance of sharing and treating our new things with respect so that we can all enjoy them. One of the most popular items were these silk ribbons which make the playground look like a rainbow!

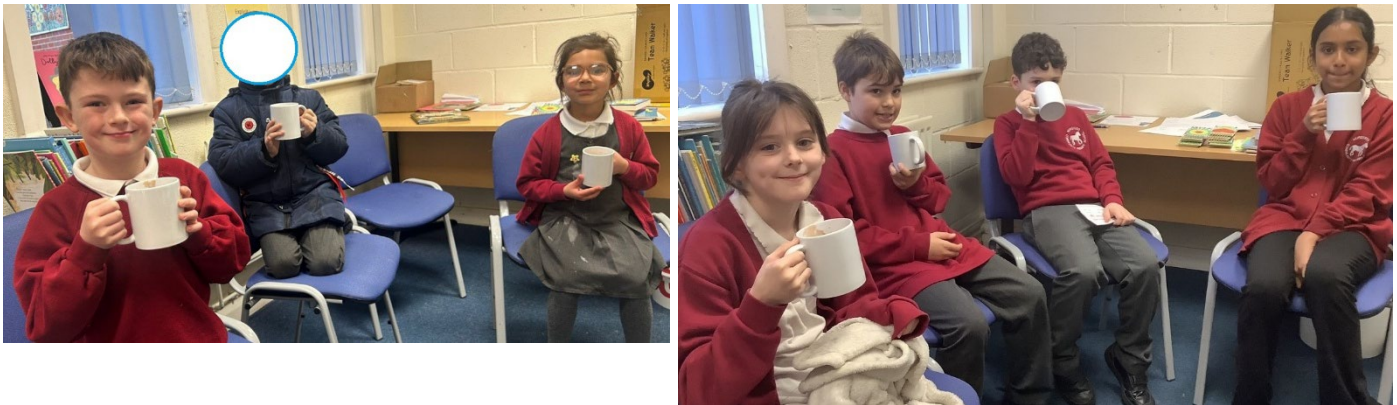

Through kindness, teamwork and determination we thrive.

Year 3 Art Session:

Our Year 3 children enjoyed a special art session lead by Dauntey's School. The children did some beautiful printing using Lego and really enjoyed this treat. Here are a selection of the final designs:

Hot Chocolate with the Head:

This week, I met S, L and Sam from Key Stage One and Teddy, Jayden, Isla and Evangel from Key Stage Two. We discussed behaviour and our new rules of Kind, Calm and Safe. All the children spoke about feeling like the behaviour is getting better in school.

Celebration Assembly:

This week we celebrated Bella, Mason, J, Leia, Lachlan, Isla P and Amelie – there was a common theme of the children showing determination in their learning and kindness towards others which is always lovely to hear.

Daisy also shared a dance trophy and medal she recently earned.
